Special Instructions: Can go shorter than 2.5 minutes; there is a scripted intro for this in the master itinerary. I will also paste it here: And for our final special dance of the evening, we would like to invite Chuck, the father of the groom, for a dance with the bride. Is this unconventional? Yes, but of course there's a reason for this. As the story goes, when Madi and Tommy told Chuck that their first dance was to the song Honeybee, to their surprise, he immediately responded saying he loved that song. Turns out, Chuck thought they were dancing to the song Honeybee by Blake Shelton, but the true first dance song was Honeybee by The Head and the Heart. After this confusion was cleared up and a long weekend of Chuck playing Blake Shelton's song at every opportunity he could, the pair was playing cards and Madi bet a dance with Chuck at the wedding to his version of Honeybee if she lost. Well, she's a woman of her word and here's Madi and Chuck dancing to

Honeybee by Blake Shelton!

Alcohol/Bar

Bar In Same Room As Dance Area: Yes

Type: Open

Additional Information: I am fairly picky about songs that I wanted played during the dueling piano show ( I have a long list of popular, common dueling piano songs that I love and would love to be played that I'm fairly certain the performers already know), so I would like my preferences to be played before guest requests, unless guest requests overlap/fit the same vibe as the songs above. Also, I would also like veto power for requests during the performance if possible.
