Towards the end of dinner, we will be set up sitting back to back and will answer these questions in front of our guests ourselves by raising the shoe for who we think fits the statements listed. There are about 15 questions. If possible, we would like the band to read the questions or allow our selected individual to read them off over a mic. This person will also announce who will be caked right after the last question is read, bridesmaid Mary will let the speaker know who is getting caked after last question is read. Right after the cake smash, the bride will be sneaking away to change into a surprise second dress and then returning.
