Additional Information: This is a corporate event for a company that wholesales items to convenience stores. There will be around 700 people attending - mainly men that own convenience stores. It is a high Indian demographic. This is the first year we are trying dueling pianos. We will also have DJ Aumir there to fill any gaps and to do dance music at the end of the night. We can play it by ear with how the crowd reacts and when we switch to the DJ music.
